AMY ROEMER IS APPOINTED DEPUTY REGIONAL ATTORNEY IN NLRB'S DETROIT, MI REGIONAL OFFICE

National Labor Relations Board's General Counsel Ronald Meisburg today announced the appointment of Amy Roemer as Deputy Regional Attorney in the agency's Regional Office in Detroit, MI (Region 7). In her new position, Ms. Roemer will assist Regional Director Stephen Glasser in the enforcement and administration of the National Labor Relations Act in the four eastern-most counties in the Upper Peninsula and the entire lower peninsula of Michigan.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act, the nation's primary labor law. It has two main functions: (1) to conduct secret-ballot elections in which employees vote on whether they want to be represented by a union for purposes of bargaining collectively with their employer about their wages, hours, and working conditions; and (2) to investigate, prosecute, and remedy unfair labor practices committed by private sector employers and unions.

In announcing the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg stated:

Amy has compiled an exemplary record in her over 20 years of service with the NLRB. Her promotion will help to ensure that the high quality work of the Detroit Regional Office will continue.

Ms. Roemer received a B.A. degree in Business Administration from the University of Michigan-Dearborn in 1988 and a J.D. degree from Wayne State University in 1993. She began her NLRB career as a "student co-op" in Region 7 in 1987 and was converted to a field examiner in 1988. In 1995, she was converted to a field attorney and was promoted to supervisory attorney in 2004.
